Short description	DOORZAAM is the training fund for the temporary agency work sector. The fund is co-managed by the employer organisations and the trade unions, and overseen by the Ministry of Social Affairs. Companies are obliged to pay 0.2% of their payroll to the Social Fund of the temporary work agency sector (SFU). Approx. 55% of the collected funds are available for education and training. DOORZAAM is also funded through participation in national and European subsidy schemes and projects. DOORZAAM provides services to its members and target groups on four themes (i.e. lifelong learning, healthy and sound working conditions, and a broad focus on career guidance and development). The training fund covers any agreed vocational training for temporary agency workers. Several programmes exist: grants for providing mentors for apprentices, training vouchers, financial contributions for the validation of professional experience, licenses for e-learning modules for employees with low literacy. Training vouchers amount to a maximum of EUR 500 per employee within a company.
