Short description	Employer and employee can agree on a payback clause. The payback clause applies when the employer co-finances training activities for the employee (directly - e.g. covering tuition fees). The employer may oblige the employee to stay in employment for a maximum of 3 years after completing the training. If an employee decides to terminate the employment, he/she must reimburse the costs of the training paid by the employer. All types of training and education relevant to performed work are eligible. (Co)financing to employees' training may include tuition fees, learning materials, travel, and accommodation costs. No government bodies and agencies are involved in the operation of the payback clause in Poland.
