Short description	"Fapi - Fondo Formazione PMI - is a joint interprofessional fund to promote the development of Continuing Education in SMEs. It is financed through the mandatory levy of 0.30% of the contributions that companies pay to INPS every month and that INPS pays to the funds to which companies adhere. The distribution of funds is very polarized in the regions where there is a high concentration of productive areas (Lombardy, Lazio, Veneto, Emilia Romagna and Piedmont). In Lazio, Puglia and Basilicata, it is the first fund in terms of the number of associated companies. The composition of members reflects the Italian reality characterized by a high share of small and medium-sized companies (almost 87% of companies have fewer than 20 employees) located mainly in the North.

Legal basis	Law 388/2000 article 118; Guidelines on the management of the financial resources allocated to the interprofessional joint funds for continuous training referred to in article 118 of law no. 388 of December 23, 2000 (ANPAL circular 10 april 2018 no. 1)
Objective(s) and target(s)	The Fund is non-profit. The Fund promotes and finances, in compliance with the modalities established by paragraph 1 and following of art. 118 of the law 388/2000, company, territorial, sectorial, regional, interregional and national training plans of and between companies agreed upon by the parties, in coherence with the regional planning and with the functions of address attributed in the matter to the Ministry of Labor and Social Policies. To this end, it carries out functions of direction, coordination, control, monitoring and verification for the development of continuing education throughout the national territory. (art. 2 Statute).
Year of implementation	2003

Operation/management	The management structure of the Fund is composed of the Assembly, the President and Vice-President, The Board of Directors and the Board of Auditors. The composition of the bodies is equal between CONFAPI and trade unions (CGIL, CISL, UIL), with the exception of the Board of Auditors. The organizational structure of FAPI, according to the Organizational Chart updated in July 2012, is as follows: General Management, Administration Office, Training Office, Organization Office and Marketing Office. It is structured in a central office and in territorial offices. The founding members are CONFAPI (Confederation of italian small and medium private enterprises) and the three italian confederal Trade Unions CGIL, CISL, UIL. Fapi has chosen to distribute the resources in a solidarity-based manner choosing "Collective Account" that is the mechanism (opposed to "Individual Account") that allows even the smallest company with the fewest employees to move on an equal footing, with respect to the opportunity to do training, with the more numerically significant productive realities. FAPI finances, through calls for proposals (AVVISI), three types of training actions for the companies adhering to the Fund: Standard Plans, Quadro Plans and Individual Plans.
Eligible group(s)	In order to benefit from the financing, the company must communicate its adhesion to the Fund (if it has adhered to another Fund, it must revoke its adhesion). Joining the Fapi (as all other Interprofessional Funds), therefore, does not cost the company anything as each company already pays these resources to the Inps. Membership can be made at any time of the year through the forms that are used monthly for the payment of contributions to the Inps.
