POLICY INSTRUMENT

Description

CountrySlovenia*Focus area*MAIN SKILLS ASSESSMENT/ANTICIPATION INITIATIVE

Based on a dismantled compulsory system, companies join in on a voluntary basis and contribute to sectoral as well as regional training funds. Members of the fund benefit from subsidies and services for training activities for employees. The goal of the initiative is to provide co-financing of formal and informal education and training of employees, further training for more demanding works, specialisation within profession, safety and health at work, knowledge of language, IT trainings etc. in order to obtain new and/or necessary skills of the employees.

Establishment Act of the Foundation for Employees Trainings (document available in Slovene language only): https://zavod-zid.si/AKT_O_USTANOVITVI/

Starting period

The initiative began in 2020 and is ongoing.

Perspective

Yes, it is based on the skills that employees of certain professions/in certain industries need to obtain/upgrade. Skills that employees obtain/upgrade under the initiative are either required by the law or are initiated by the employer.

Policy areaEDUCATION

FundingOTHER

Employers pay a special contribution to the Foundation in order to ensure the organized education of workers at work and from work. The Council of the Foundation determines the amount of the contribution to education. The contribution is determined in the gross amount of 1 percent of a minimum gross salary in the Republic of Slovenia per employee. In 2020, the requested contribution is 6,5 EUR per employee. The funds raised through the contributions of employers are intended exclusively for education, training, advanced training, professional excursions, information, general cultural education of employees of employers who pay the contribution, and for the operation of the Foundation.

Sustainability

Success factors

The available data shows that the Foundation has been steadily co-financing trainings and education of employees since its establishment. Trainings and education in the amount of 984.514,00 EUR have been co-financed since its establishment in 2010 and 12.812 employees included in the education and/or trainings.

Barriers

The Foundation reported lack of (potentially productive) collaboration with the Chamber of Craft and Small Businesses of Slovenia.

Monitoring and evaluation

No (publicly available) evaluations of the initiative has been conducted. However, the available data yearly shows the number of employees educated and trained via the initiative. The total number of trained/educated employees is 12.225 (data obtained in April 2021).

Updates

There have been no major updates of the initiative since its implementation.

NO

The only minor change appeared in the Rules of the Foundation in 2020. Prior the amendment the Article 1 stated: "In order to ensure organized education of workers /.../, employers voluntarily pay a special contribution to the Foundation /.../". In the amended Rules the word "voluntarily" was removed.

Effectiveness

The available data shows that the Foundation has been steadily co-financing trainings and education of employees since its establishment. Trainings and education in the amount of 984.514,00 EUR have been co-financed since its establishment in 2010. In 2020 the Foundation co-financed trainings and education in the amount of 36.342,57 EUR; in 2019 in the amount of 58.508,49 EUR and in 2018 in the amount of 92.667,35 EUR. Trainings and education of 12.812 employees since its establishment.

Sustainability

The Foundation's instrument has been in operation for more than 10 years and has been gained trust among its members. It has been in operation continually without interruption and has co-financed trainings and education of employees in the amount of almost 1 million EUR since its establishment. The sustainability of the initiative is thus promising.
