

The Amendments to the rules on education staff promotion

POLICY DEVELOPMENT

REGULATION/LEGISLATION

 SLOVENIA

Timeline

2020 Approved/Agreed

ID number 39925

Background

The amendments support the agreement signed by the Government of the Republic of Slovenia and the Slovenian Syndicate for Upbringing, Education and Science (SVIZ) in December 2018. The Government cooperated with representatives of the union in modernising the career development of education staff.

Objectives

Professionals and head teachers or directors employed in education are promoted to the titles of mentor (mentor), advisor (svetovalec) and councillor (svetnik). The promotion to a title is proposed by the head teacher or director in agreement with the teacher in question. The promotion of the head teacher or director to a title is proposed by the school council, kindergarten or institution in agreement with the head teacher/director. Advancement to titles is decided by the minister responsible for education. Acquired titles are permanent.

The amendments provide for smoother promotion of education staff into titles.

Description

Among other things, the rules made it easier to be promoted into the title of the councillor: for example, all public artistic performances are now evaluated and count towards promotion.
