ID number 29967

Objectives

The main objective of this regulation is to promote niche and rare professions.

Description

On 11 September 2019, the education ministry announced a list of vocational education professions of particular significance for culture and national heritage. The list covers 21 occupations, most being niche and rare professions (e.g. leatherworker (kaletnik), goldsmith-jeweller (złotnik-jubiler), yacht and boat assembler (monter jachtów i łodzi), beekeeper technician (technik pszczelarz). This regulation will have an impact on VET financing. As of 2020, local governments will receive increased State subsidies for VET school learners in occupations indicated on the list. The subsidy is the same as for professions for which an increased demand is forecasted, i.e. approximately EUR 268 per student (PLN 1197) and EUR 107 (PLN 479) for students who are young employees.
