Description

Following the social contract for VET 2011-2015 for more relevant and flexible VET, a new upper secondary dual model (Vekslingsmodellen) has been piloted since 2013 as an alternative pathway for learners experiencing difficulties completing the main (2+2 model) VET pathway. The scheme offers the possibility of concluding an apprenticeship contract after year 1 (instead of only after year 2) in the main 2+2 VET pathway.

An evaluation was carried out in 2015 with a focus on organisation, planning and implementation. In 2016, the second round of evaluation was carried out, with a focus on professional development, motivation and implementation.

A final evaluation was carried out and published in 2019. The report showed that the students have good academic development and good motivation for their training and that there was a basis for continuing alternation models in several subject areas.

2024 Implementation

The social contract for VET

The social contract for VET was renewed in 2016 aiming at providing apprenticeship places to all qualified young people who applied, therefore tackling high dropout rates, increasing the number of apprenticeships and the number of adults acquiring a trade or journeyman's certificate.
