Description

Training projects jointly funded by the European Social Fund and contributing to key competences have been developed during the reporting period: the Prokop project (2016-19) supplements the training offer of the public employment service with continuing training in financial literacy, citizenship skills and soft skills for inactive people and people at risk of unemployment. For selected beneficiaries, training is supplemented by individual guidance; the Support for foreigners project (2016-18) provided individual guidance and training (soft skills, financial literacy and citizenship skills) to foreigners to help them find a job.
