

Pathways to school success: A comprehensive roadmap

A practical guide for implementing the Council Recommendation on ensuring school success for all

Description

This report from the European Commission's Working Group on Schools, Sub-group on Pathways to School Success is a practical guide for ensuring school success, aiming to reduce underachievement, prevent early school leaving, and promote inclusion and well-being. It emphasises a whole-school approach, early detection of at-risk students, holistic assessments, and professional development.

Key factors involve inclusive curricula, social-emotional learning, and data-driven strategies. Actionable steps to overcome policy inconsistencies involve promoting leadership, developing standardised assessments, providing teacher support, ensuring flexible funding, implementing inclusive practices, and conducting comprehensive data collection.
