

Cross-case analyses of school-based prevention and intervention measures

Description

Different approaches schools adopt when providing individualised support to students. This study analyses the types of measures used by schools to provide one-on-one emotional and behavioural support.

Download the report in the link below.

Countries

 Austria

 Belgium

 Poland

 Portugal

 Spain

 United Kingdom

Downloads

Cross-case analyses of school-based prevention and intervention measures

EN

Related intervention approaches

Counselling to address barriers to learning

