

Preventive, intervention and compensatory measures aimed at reducing early school leaving

Exploring the possibilities of performing a cost-benefit analysis

Description

The focus of this paper is on the costs and benefits associated with preventive, intervention and compensatory measures of early school leaving examined in RESL.eu.

It explores possibilities of performing a cost-benefit analysis within the context of the RESL.eu project.

Download the publication in the link below.

Countries

 Austria

 Belgium

 Hungary

 Netherlands

 Poland

 Portugal

 Spain

 Sweden

 United Kingdom

Downloads

Preventive, intervention and compensatory measures aimed at reducing early school leaving

EN