

The relationship between career competencies, career identity, motivation and quality of choice

Description

This article focuses on the effects of career education and guidance among students (aged 12–19-years old) enrolled in prevocational and secondary vocational education in The Netherlands.

Download the article in the link below.

Countries

 Netherlands

Downloads

The relationship between career competencies, career identity, motivation and quality of choice

EN