

The relationship between teachers' teaching styles and students' engagement in school and ESL

Description

The article uses a parenting style framework to explain the influence of teacher's teaching practices on students' academic and social outcomes (e.g. academic achievements, attitude to schoolwork, self-efficacy, etc.) which are known to relate to ESL.

Read the publication in the link below.

Countries

 EU level

Downloads

The relationship between teachers' teaching styles and students' engagement in school and ESL

EN