

11th TTNET ANNUAL CONFERENCE

INFORMING VET POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR TEACHERS AND TRAINERS: ENHANCING TTNET'S ROLE

Thessaloniki, 25 February 2009

Europa Room

Agenda

9.15	Registration of participants
9.30	Opening of the conference Mara Brugia, Head of Area Enhanced cooperation in VET and Lifelong Learning
Session 1	Looking at the present: highlights of TTnet's main achievements
9.50	Main strengths and achievements of TTnet Rocío Lardinois, Cedefop
10.10	Supporting VET teachers and trainers' professional development, key messages from the European Commission's activities Dagmar Ouzoun, European Commission, DG Education and Training
	Key messages from recent TTnet workshops
10.30	Mentoring in VET, European perspectives (Thessaloniki, 6-7 November 2008) David Gray and Ken Marsh, TTnet United Kingdom
11.10	Coffee Break
11.20	Towards a common competence framework for VET professions (Malta, 19-20 January 2009) Kristiina Volmari, TTnet Finland and Antoine Barbara, TTnet Malta

	Update on current Cedefop studies related to teaching and training and the role of TTnet
12.10	Best practices and policies for the training and professional development of in-company trainers Anna Manoudi, GHK
12.30	Lunch hosted by Cedefop
Session 2:	Looking at the future
13.30	After a decade of activity, new challenges and perspectives for TTnet Working groups
15.30	Coffee break
15.45	Feedback from the groups
16.30	Conclusions Rocío Lardinois, Cedefop
17.00	End of the conference

English is the working language
