

Irena Bačelić (Croatia) the Head of Sector for Labour Market in the Ministry of Labour, Pension System, Family and Social Policy.

More than 25 years of professional experience in capacity building activities in the field of employment and labour market, gained while working at the Croatian Ministry of Labour and Pension System and Croatian Employment Service on the positions of Head of Labour Market Sector, Head of Sector for Labour Market Analysis, Head of Division for Vocational Guidance and Counselling and, Advisor for Vocational Guidance and Career Counselling; Job Mediation Advisor, including experience gained through implementation and management of various donor funded projects in the field of adult education, career guidance and labour market.

Responsibilities include employment policies, programmes and measures development, harmonization of education with labour market demands, development of the Croatian Qualifications Framework and analysis of labour market trends and demands.

Last two years intensively working on development of Croatian ESF+ Programme Efficient Human Resources 2021.-2027. And Croatian Recovery and Resilience Plan, (NPOO) as a national coordinator for implementation of the new system of adult education - Voucher System.

Currently president of the Forum for career guidance established in 2014 and a member of National Council for Human Resources Development. Also, member of the Employment Committee (EMCO) and ESCO.