

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Secretary-General

The Independent Trade Union of Workers in Secondary Education of Croatia

Kennedyjev trg 7

10000 Zagreb

Croatia

Jere studied at the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering and Naval Architecture, University of Zagreb in Croatia and holds a degree in mechanical engineering (MA). Prior to joining the school, Jere also worked as a mechanical designer for the automotive industry. Jere Bilan has been working as a teacher in the Maritime High School in Zadar since 1997.

He is the Secretary General of the main office of the Independent Trade Union of Workers in Secondary Education in Croatia.

The nature of his duties as the Union representative include organisation of various event – travel arrangements, meetings, teacher councils/conferences, various Union actions such as protests, referendums for schools, legal advisory role to teachers, media presentations of educational topics, press releases, interviews, budget organisation and compliance with the budget of the Union, the membership on the Union Board at the national level, as well as a permanent member of the Union's negotiating team for collective agreements in Croatia.