

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Manuela GELENG

Manuela Geleng works for the European Commission in the Directorate-General for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion. Since July 2018, she is Director for Skills, which includes responsibility for skills, vocational education and training policies as well for promoting entrepreneurship and access to microfinance. Her directorate also monitors employment and social policies and the implementation in six Member States of the European Social Fund and Fund for the Most Deprived.

Previously, Manuela Geleng held several other managerial positions in the Commission, more recently as Acting Director for Social Affairs and Head of the Social Investment Strategy Unit.

Prior to joining the European Commission, she worked in the private sector as a management consultant and for the United Nations Development Programme. She holds a MSc in Financial Economics from the University of London and a Master in Public Administration and Management from the Solvay Business School. She completed her postgraduate studies at the Diplomatic Academy in Vienna.

Current position

Director E - Skills
European Commission
Directorate-General for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion
Brussels, Belgium