

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Current position

Egbert Holthuis works for the European Commission in the Directorate-General for Employment, Social Affairs & Inclusion. Since October 2016, he is heading the unit responsible for monitoring employment and social policies and the implementation of the European Social Fund and Fund for the Most Deprived in Germany, Austria, Slovenia and Croatia. In July 2021, he became deputy to the Director for Jobs and Skills, Mrs Manuela Geleng. He held several other managerial positions in the Commission including as head of unit for social policies. Prior to joining the European Commission, he worked for The Netherlands Organisation for applied scientific research (TNO) and the Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs. He holds a Master Degree in Human Geography and in Business Administration.