

PERSONAL INFORMATION

 Latvia

Current position

Policy Officer on Education, Employment and Social Issues

Free Trade Union Confederation of Latvia (LBAS)

She has been working at LBAS since the beginning of 2017. She is responsible for education, employment and social issues. Project manager on development of professional standards as part of the European Social Fund project at national level (2016 – 2021)

Previously she worked at State Labour Inspectorate, Secretariat of the Latvian Presidency of the Council of the European Union/The Ministry of Foreign Affairs and LBAS (from 2004 to 2010) mainly as Project manager for large scale projects related to labour market issues

Linda Romele holds a PhD degree in Economics and has participated as researcher in several studies on labour market issues, previously studied and has interest on rates of return to investments in education

Representing LBAS at Governing Board of CEDEFOP and ACVT (since 2017)