

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Themistoklis Kotsifakis is a teacher of Vocational Education.

He was president of the Federation of Teachers of Secondary Education in Greece, a member of the Executive Committee of the ETUCE-Education International Europe, and represented Greece's teachers in the European Social Dialogue in the field of education.

He has presented papers on scientific conferences on issues of his specialty (medical laboratories), Health Education and Health Promotion as well as educational policy issues.

He is the author of books of his specialty in Clinical Biochemistry taught in the EPAL as well as educational policy books on VET.

His articles have been published in the daily and periodical press, on the Internet and in journals of international educational organizations on educational policy issues in Greece and Europe, Vocational Education and Training and Health Promotion and Health Promotion.

Today she is a partner of the Deputy Minister of Education, Research and Religious Affairs for Vocational Education

Current position

PARTNER OF THE VICE MINISTER OF EDUCATION, RESEARCH AND RELIGIOUS AFFAIRS

GREEK MINISTRY OF EDUCATION, RESEARCHES AND RELIGIUS AFFAIRS