PROJECT DESCRIPTION:

Cedefop's Department for Communication (DCM) leads the communication campaign for the European Skills & VET Week, an initiative from the European Commission aimed at:

- Raising awareness on the importance of VET, skills and learning for Europe's growth, competitiveness, inclusion, sustainability and prosperity;
- Reframing the narrative around VET, skills and learning, and promoting it as a fulfilling and rewarding career choice;
- Building on the Union of Skills and the EU VET Strategy, keeping VET, skills and lifelong learning high on the EU agenda while strengthening their implementation and impact at national level.

The European Skills & VET Week will bring together policymakers, practitioners, social partners and a broad range of stakeholders to exchange best practices, discuss challenges, and engage with the latest evidence and trends on skills, lifelong learning and labour-market needs.

You will support the development and execution of the communication campaign by producing engaging visual assets and multimedia content for the ESWW website and social media, including short videos, infographics and creative posts.

MAIN DUTIES AND LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- Assist in the production of multimedia content, including script writing, and the development of social media posts, infographics and videos for various platforms.
- Assist in photo editing and research.
- Assist in layout design for publications.
- Gain hands-on experience in visual and digital content creation for communication campaigns.
