

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Robert Micallef is a dynamic entrepreneur holding the position of Managing Director of a local business enterprise which also has a strong international dimension. Robert has occupied this position for the past 7 years and has consolidated the business operations and at the same time diversified the business activity through active engagement and networking. In addition, Robert is also the Head of Institution of Avanza Training Academy, a newly established firm, branching out into the education market, a sector which Robert is so passionate about. Through this activity, Robert is continuously gaining invaluable skills related to the education and management fields, that also contributed to forming a sharp business acumen. After graduating with a Bachelor's degree in Sports and Active Lifestyle from the University of Malta, Robert has progressed to attain a Masters in Entrepreneurship

Current position

Managing Director

Office Group Limited

Head of Institution

Avanza Academy

Malta Chamber of SMEs

Executive Council Member