

Dr.sc.pol. Inese Stepina. Deputy Director General of the Employers' Confederation of Latvia (LDDK), Adviser on EU and international affairs.

She is responsible for the preparation of the LDDK's opinions on international and EU regulations, development and implementation of the LDDK's strategy, internal control over the EU funded projects implemented by the LDDK for the successful implementation of the LDDK's mission and the achievement of organizational goals.

She is member of the European Social Dialogue Committee, Social Fund Committee, Advisory Committee on Safety and Health at Work, Advisory Committee on Free Movement of Workers and Advisory Committee for the Coordination of Social Security System

She is also lecturer at the University of Latvia Faculty of Business, Management and Economics and Faculty of Social Sciences, from 2011 to 2019 - guest lecturer at the School of Business Administration "Turība". Specialization in comparative politics, EU policies and law.

Prior to joining LDDK, from 2002 to 2007 worked at the European Commission - Acting Head of the Representation in Latvia, Head of the Press and Information Division of the Delegation in Latvia, and from 1998 to 2022 she worked at the Ministry of Defense of the Republic of Latvia in various positions in the field of public relations.